

“Courage, Dear Heart!”

Encouragement for those who Love Jesus

In CS Lewis’ voyage of the Dawn Treader, Lucy and the crew find themselves caught in a consuming darkness. Lucy goes up the mast to look for light, calling on Aslan, and as she does, she hears a quiet voice whisper to her, "Courage, dear heart," and the voice, she felt sure, was Aslan's, and with the voice a delicious smell breathed in her face.” Before long, they sailed out of the darkness and into the light of day.

This little corner on our website will be devoted to bringing encouragement to those weary in the battle, to those who have given their lives to serve Jesus, and to those who need a fresh whisper of His presence.

May you feel the whisper of God’s voice in the middle of the storm. “Take courage, dear heart.” May you sense the refreshing of Jesus as you listen to His voice, hold fast, and keep your eyes fixed on the light of His face.
